

Nature, Flower

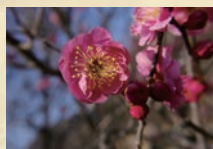

Shiroyama Park

- Known as one of the city's symbol by Sano citizen.
- Famous spot for sakura and azalea, this park is always packed with visitors especially during peak viewing seasons in spring.

Ume Garden

- 140 white-blossomed and 80 red-blossomed plum trees.
- There are also sakura and azalea trees planted in the garden.

Mt. Hourai

- Mt. Hourai has flourished as a holy place.
- A promenade is provided for pedestrians.
- Seasonal nature is beautiful, especially colored leaves in autumn.

Art, Culture

Yoshizawa Memorial Art Gallery

- Displaying a lot of Japanese art painting and pottery art from Edo era.

Kuzū Fossil Museum

- Approximately 550 specimens (fossils, rocks and minerals), mostly from Kuzū (Sano City), from the exhibit of this museum.

Hikoma Japanese Paper Hall

- Experience making Japanese Hikoma paper that has a long tradition and history.

Indigo Dyeing

- Experience dyeing your own handkerchief or even hijab!
- Very old and traditional way of indigo dyeing passed on from centuries ago in Japan.

Outdoor

Yomogiyama Log Village

- Outdoor recreation spot equipped with a cottage, bathhouse, tennis court, and playground equipment made from logwood and much more.
- Accommodation facility is also provided.

Akiyama Hostels , Morisawa Woodland & Ancient Times Village

- Multi-purpose accommodation facilities that are suitable for families or groups.
- Besides staying in a real log house, this hostel also provides a multi-purpose hall, training rooms, large indoor bath, barbecue house and the Akiyama Restaurant to be used for various purposes.
- Log houses are surrounded by a forest located at the bank of the Morisawa River.
- Enjoy the crisp air and the refreshing murmuring of the river.
- Ancient life can be experienced in this village.
- There are four earth-lodge type houses and two cave-type houses.

Strawberry Picking

- Sano is one of the famous places growing Tochiotome strawberries. Fresh and tasty strawberries are available directly from farms. Reservation are preferable.

Shopping

Sano Premium Outlets®

- Approximately 170 stores of famous international and Japanese brands.
- Modeled after a town on the east coast of the United States.

Michi No Eki Domannaka Tanuma

- A lot of Sano specialties are available and other delicious cuisines.
- 'Ashiyu' (footbath) originating from the Tanuma Hotspring for free is also available.
- Illuminations at night during winter.

Food

Sano Ramen

- Ramen is a popular dish, which originates from the Chinese noodles in soup. Sano attracts a large number of visitors with its unique ramen featuring homemade noodles and pork stock made from the fresh water of Sano. In the city, there are hundreds of restaurants which serve Sano ramen.

